Beach House Vacation

One Acre Press Ava Ingerson knows what she wants: the beautiful California beach house she just inherited, a career in teaching supplemented with income from her vacation guests, and a life full of friends, fun and family—right here in Seahaven, California. She's never moving again, no matter what, so when handsome entrepreneur Samuel Cross arrives to stay at her beach house for two weeks, Ava knows the last thing she should do is act on her attraction to him. When Sam forgave his business partner and fiancée for falling in love with each other, he didn't expect them to invite him on their pre-wedding vacation jaunt to Seahaven, or that he'd actually agree to come. But Sam knows his ex. She's planning to use the trip to make a bid for control of his start-up. He's prepared for two weeks of unmitigated misery with the happy couple and their other guests, but things look up when their pretty host, Ava, quickly takes stock of the situation and maneuvers Sam into the best room of the house. Now if only he can convince Ava she needs to spend more time with him, he might salvage this vacation, after all. Ava isn't sure why she keeps coming to Sam's rescue, but she's having more fun than she's had in years as they explore all the area has to offer—with and without his friends. If she doesn't get her heart under control, she'll end up hurt all over again. After all, Sam has made it clear his home is in Chicago. Sam knows his life is waiting for him in Illinois, including the big contract he's been working so hard to land, so why is he daydreaming about a life under the California sun? He needs to persuade Ava to come home with him. It's the only sensible thing to do. But neither Ava nor Sam feel like being sensible anymore...

Beach House Romance

One Acre Press She's 27 and just hit rock bottom.... Emma Miller's fiancé left her days before her meal delivery business went bust. Now she's broke, homeless and starting out all over again, weighed down with debt that isn't even hers. So when she learns she and her estranged sister, Ashley, have received an unexpected inheritance, she's thrilled. Now they can both move to Seahaven, California and run Brightview, her grandmother's rambling beachside bed & breakfast. She'll do the cooking. Ashley can tend the Cliff Garden, the attached acre of winding paths and flower beds that has been in their family for generations. With her money and family woes solved, who knows—maybe someday Emma will find love again, too. He's 33 and just hit it out of the park... Noah Hudson's life couldn't be better. He's sold his successful business and can finally right the wrong he did years ago to his older brother's career. Andrew deserves his turn in the limelight, so Noah just bought one of the last undeveloped oceanfront lots in Seahaven. He'll give Andrew an unlimited budget to design and build a luxury vacation home that will land on the cover of every architectural magazine. While he's waiting for his new digs, Noah has found a handy living situation in the bed & breakfast next door. While Andrew pursues his dream, he can spend his days on his own passions: extreme sports photography. Emma is furious when she finds out Ashley sold their grandmother's garden to the newly minted millionaire renting one of her guest rooms—a very handsome millionaire who seems to have nothing better to do but surf, snap a few photos, and play havoc with her heart. Noah just realized what he left off his to-do list: find the woman of his dreams. Turns out she's his current landlady and about to be his next-door neighbor—if she doesn't kill him for destroying her grandmother's legacy first. Can Emma and Noah find a way to heal the past without ruining their future together?
