Salvation from the Lake of Fire

The Beauty of John 3:16

WestBow Press If you are wondering what will happen to you after death, this systematic exploration of scripture can help you learn the biblical truth regarding the various views and descriptions of Hell. Salvation from the Lake of Fire takes the complex and controversial subject of the eternal punishment in the lake of fire for unbelievers and offers hope of salvation through Jesus Christ in easy-to-understand terms. The overall goal is to reach out to unbelievers and Christians who may have questions regarding the afterlife or who are searching for assurances of salvation. Author Elisabeth Christine Nelson invites the reader to share her journey from the past three years, describing what she did as she systemically searched scriptures to unveil the truth. She includes tangents, twists, and turns with the hope of encouraging you to follow a road of discovery as you find truthful answers to your questions. This well-thought-out and compelling treatise reveals that God loves us enough to sacrificially offer His Son, Jesus Christ, to die for our sins and that only through our faith in Jesus can we have salvation from the lake of fire.

He Walks with Me Through the Mists of Time

Word Alive Press Since my beautiful salvation experience at fifty years of age, I commenced the Christian part of my career in the province of my birth, Ontario, Canada, where I enjoyed a five-year stint with 100 Huntley Street as head of the Security Counselling Department and where I was also blessed to attend and sit on the board of an Elim Fellowship Church, Faith Temple in downtown Toronto. Faith Temple was pastored by an outstanding man of God, Dr. Winston Nunes, who over his long career with The Assemblies Of God and with The Pentecostal Assemblies Of Canada and finally with Elim Fellowship became very well known and respected as both an evangelist and as an outstanding Bible teacher. Some of my poetry is based on teachings in his only published book, Driven by The Spirit. Allow me here to share a testimony to God's faithful guidance and direction when we commit our lives to Him. When God wonderfully rescued me from my lost condition, I was almost fifty years of age and about to lose my marriage of twenty-one years. Thankfully, God restored my marriage, which lasted until my first wife's death thirty-two years later in 2008. My association with Dr. Nunes followed, and as a church we released him annually on a speaking tour of churches all through western Canada and the United States. On a speaking engagement in 1978 at a Vancouver church called Glad Tidings, a very happily married fifty-three-year-old English mother of six was catapulted to the altar in response to Dr. Nunes invitation for salvation. To sum up, Dr. Nunes, my pastor in Toronto, Ont., was the instrument God used when he preached in Vancouver, B.C., to wonderfully save the woman who, forty years later and widowed, would become my wife, Mrs. Agnes Mary McCluskey. Is God good or what! These dates and times are closely approximate, my age and all that eh!

Philosophy and Salvation

An Essay on Wisdom, Beauty, and Love as the Goal of Life

ISD LLC We all seek salvation, claims Blanco, because we all become prisoners of negativity. Humanity wants to be saved, we want to overcome the negativity that so often enslaves us. But, where is the saviour to be found, and where is the source of salvation? In Philosophy and Salvation Blanco argues that salvation may only come from the infinite springs of the word. 'The word saves us: the word of science, the word manifested in art, the word of a society which promises something for itself . . . Humanity understands itself through language: human beings use words in order to know each other and to cooperate in the edification of something that may transcend them. The word invites us, and in fact leads us to transcendence. This is salvation: to inaugurate a new world in which the former negativity may be overcome'. Blanco looks back over the history of philosophical and theological thought to bring his argument to life for all seeking salvation today.

The Message Jesus Preached

Things were Different in the Church Jesus Started

WestBow Press THINGS WERE DIFFERENT IN THE CHURCH JESUS STARTED We sing songs to Jesus. We pray to Jesus. But do we really know and understand what Jesus preached? Before you say, "Yes," and move on, consider these shocking facts: • Most messages preached today have nothing to do with Jesus' core message • Christian universities that train pastors, missionaries, and priests don't have courses that teach what Jesus taught, and it's been this way for hundreds of years • The majority of believers in Christ have little or no understanding of what Jesus said or what He meant when He said it God is realigning His church with the message Jesus preached, and He's doing it to prepare us for Jesus' return. Get ready for a journey through the Bible that will help you: • Challenge your Christian experience and knowledge of Jesus' teachings • Learn the true heart of Christ's teachings as recorded in God's Word • Discover the Kingdom life Jesus provided for, exemplified, and taught • Shed any belief barriers that have inhibited your spiritual life to this point • Embrace and renew a walk with God that is alive, growing, fresh, and purposeful

Explorations in Art, Theology and Imagination

Routledge Christianity has repeatedly valued the "Word" over and above the non-verbal arts. Art has been seen through the interpretative lens of theology, rather than being valued for what it can bring to the discipline. 'Explorations in Art, Theology and Imagination' argues that art is crucially important to theology. The book explores the interconnecting themes of embodiment and incarnation, faith and imagination, and the similarities and differences between art and theology. Arguing for a critique that begins with art and moves to theology, 'Explorations in Art, Theology and Imagination' offers a radical re-evaluation of the role of art in Christian discourse.

God's Full and Wonderful Salvation

Chapters 5 and 6 from ONE TRUTH

These two chapters--taken from Hon's Trilogy - ONE TRUTH - are perhaps the most difficult to grasp for most Christians. The issue of: Why is there evil in the world? What took place in eternity past that now involves in time and space the pinnacle of God's creation, man, to defeat the initial rebellion manifested in the spiritual personage of one, Satan, Lucifer, the "Morning Star?" Why did the Creator create man in the first place, knowing full-well that this man would fall into disobedience to thwart God's eternal plan and purpose; yet, through "God's Full and Wonderful Salvation" the Almighty's plan for the ages would not be foiled? To the contrary, the very character, nature of the Triune God through Satan's rebellion, man's initial fall into disobedience and sin, whereby God's plan to defeat His foe, seemed to go off the rails. But the plan, through the Person and Work of Christ, brought back from the grave and was given New Life whereby through the "Obedience of One, Jesus Christ" mankind would experience this marvelous salvation through His incarnation, human living, death, burial, resurrection, ascension and the indwelling Spirit of Christ. There's so much spiritual meat in this little booklet -- you'll not want to put it down -- may the inner eyes of our hearts be opened wide to see "so great a salvation!"

For the Beauty of the Church

Casting a Vision for the Arts

Baker Books Think of your local church. Without art--music, song, dance, etc.--it would be a much poorer place. But if protestants have any vision for the arts, it tends to be a thin one. This unique book is an attempt to contribute to a robust, expansive vision for the church and the arts. Its specific aim is to show how the many parts of the landscape of church and art hold together. You can think of it as a kind of helicopter flyover, but one with expert pilots. The guides include the likes of Eugene Peterson, Lauren Winner, Jeremy Begbie, Andy Crouch, and John Witvliet, helping to inspire readers and empower pastor-leaders with a vision of the church and the arts that is compelling, far-seeing, and profoundly transformative.
